Interest Groups provide an opportunity for individuals with a particular interest to meet together to enjoy the activity and develop new friendships. Whatever your interest - gardening, photography, biking - why not begin or join an Interest Group and get connected? Contact Pastor Glenn ghart@lsachurch.net or 519-979-8082 x 214.

Celebrate Recovery: every Friday Night @ 7pm at the church. If you are struggling with any Hurts, Habits, or Hang-ups, this is the place to be. Everyone welcome.

Wake Me Up Inside

So if it's not about the bunny, the chocolate or the day off, what's it really about? And if it's deeper than that - if it's about waking up to a real-life relationship with God - how does one get there? How do we do life with God? It begins with a seemingly simple yet powerful virtue: a willingness to be awakened.

That's why it is said,

Wake up, O sleeper, (big yawn)

*R^IS^E from the dead (your dead, empty, numb way of life)
And Christ will shine on you (and show you how to live life).*

Ephesians. 5:14

The real meaning of Easter begins with a simple prayer:

God of Jesus,

I want you to wake me up inside.
