John 11:38-44

I have been reading and, more recently, studying the Bible all my life (well as long as I can remember) - trying to understand it. I continue to find the Bible the most challenging and rewarding book. The more I get to know about God, the more I realize what I don't know. Can I just say that the Bible can be a difficult book? As I have wrestled with understanding and applying it to my life, I have found that there are some questions/issues that need to be addressed by anyone who wants to get to know God better through the Bible. The first is simply, why would I want to read the Bible? The second is how should I study the Bible so that I understand what it is saying? Lastly, what kind of practice should I develop to help me apply the Bible to my life?

...for the word of God is living and active...sharper than any double-edged sword...it penetrates
even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow...it judges the
thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

Did you bring your own Bible?
